Room Design-

Open and spacious rooms centred around a minimalist aesthetical choice that complements the high-quality décor; encapsulating the hotels' lavishness.

A sophisticated approach of item placement in the room, attention-to-detail of colour coordination and spectacular natural lighting achieved through wide-spread windows; all evoke the sensations of being captured in an artist's rendition of tranquillity and harmony. A picture-perfect setting.

Outdoors-

Feast your eyes on the beauty of Valletta with an all exclusive panoramic view. Rosselli offers it's residence two quintessential settings to admire the viewpoint:

As you bathe in the outdoor pool, pull up to the edge and be greeted by the city beneath you.

Enhance your viewing with the sweet aroma and vibrancy of flowers that surround you in the rooftop garden; lay comfortably in one of the many deckchairs available, accommodated with fresh pillows.

Dining-

At Rosselli, dining exemplifies the classical sophistication felt throughout the hotel. Be invigorated by the enrichment of prestige; as your presence is accompanied by humbling etiquette and masterful catering.

You are granted with an assortment of choices for your dining setting and experience. From a dim-lit hall with carefully curated dining to feeling the welcoming breeze and sunshine rest on your skin as you casually dine at the rooftop garden.

The chefs work meticulously to meet the highest of expectations of taste and Rosselli stand by this. Supplied with rich, high-quality produce instilled with delightful Mediterranean flavours; be satisfied as you experience the best of what Malta has to offer.

The Lounge-

The staple point of glamour and prestige; all who enter, and leave will be captivated by the pristine layout of the lounge. Overbearing pillars and archways plastered with a soft cream coloured aesthetic; accented with the dark colours of the décor and the glistening marble floor.

The setting screams classical culture; step down the overarching stairway and behold the glamour that surrounds you, including the elegant white fountain that completes the serenity of the lounge.

The Meeting Room-

Privacy is of central importance to Rosselli. Secluded meeting rooms are provided for residents to give them the liberty to engage in private discussions and corporate ventures without disturbance.

Whether it be a meeting with colleagues or a small business chat; yourself and others will be impressed by the standards Rosselli adhere to. A distinct corporate image that makes a bold statement that 'business is on the table'. Expect to be bestowed with a plethora of facilities to accommodate all that attend; providing a positive and comfortable atmosphere for your meetings.
